Use of photographic images for commercial products is subject to approval and may require a licensing agreement. Permission is discretionary and fees are separately negotiated. Applicants may request a waiver or reduction of fees for reproduction of an image in a scholarly publication, defined as a publication that reproduces an image for an educational or cultural purpose and is directed to a limited educational or professional audience with a limited print run not to exceed 5,000 copies. The request should be submitted in writing and approval is at the discretion of the Museum.

Terms and conditions for the use of photographic images are specified in the licensing agreement, which is supplied with each photographic request. Payment of the use fee is due upon receipt of the agreement.

Official permission is considered valid once payment and counter-signed agreement are received by the Museum.
