

KWANZAA 2020

CELEBRATE KWANZAA WITH THREE SMITHSONIAN MUSEUMS!

Kwanzaa is a seven-day festival, held December 26–January 1, that pays tribute to the rich cultural roots of African peoples in the diaspora. It is neither a religious, political, or heroic holiday, but a cultural one. Celebrate with one or more Smithsonian museums as they explore Kwanzaa’s seven principles, themes, and history through art, interactive workshops, and performance.
